Such authorizations will not be abused by the representatives and will not be unreasonably withheld by the Employer.
- 9.04 The Employer agrees to recognize a negotiating committee to be appointed by the Union for the purposes of representing the Employees in negotiations for the renewal of this Collective Agreement. The Employer shall be advised in writing of the names of the committee members prior to the commencement of negotiations.
- 9.05 The Employer agrees, upon the written request of the Union, to provide the Union with information regarding the salary and benefits of Employees in the Bargaining Unit. On a case-by-case basis, the Employer may consider a written request from the Union for additional information required for the negotiation of the Agreement. It is understood that the Employer will not be required to compile information and/or statistics in a form other than that in which such data are already compiled.
- 9.06 The Employer, at its expense, shall provide each Employee with a copy of this Agreement and shall provide the Union with a further ten (10) copies within thirty (30) days of its signing. Further copies shall be made available at cost upon request of the Union.

When such activities result in the Employee's absence from his/her work location, as provided in this Agreement, the Employee will not be required to make up that time in the work location. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such absence will not exempt an Employee from meeting deadlines for specific obligations set out by the Immediate Supervisor or Responsible Manager.

- 9.10 The Employer agrees to continue to provide the Union with access to University classroom space (subject to other priorities and availability), with suitably serviced office space, telephone service, and with use of the internal mail service. The Employer will continue to provide bulletin board space upon which the Union shall have the right to post notices pertaining to elections, appointments, meeting dates, news items, social and recreational events.

- 9.11 During the time that collective bargaining regarding the renewal of this Collective Agreement is in progress the Union's chief negotiator for this Bargaining Unit shall, on request, be exempt from University committee assignments.

Because of the work schedule required of Full-Time Unit II members, the Employer agrees to exempt, on request, a Full-Time Unit II member elected to the office of Union President from University committee assignments during the period of office with the understanding that the Union will ensure that there is adequate Employee representation on the committees concerned.

- 9.14 The Employer shall for purposes of Article 9.09 recognize that an Employee who is elected President of the Union or Vice-President of Unit II, but not both shall be allowed such reasonable time as is necessary, during his/her normal working hours, with pay and with no loss of seniority or benefits to:

The party receiving such notice shall, within and not later than five (5) days of the receipt of such notice, advise the other party of the name of its nominee to the Arbitration Board. The two nominees so appointed shall within seven (7) days of the appointment of the latter of them attempt to agree on a third person as chairperson. In the event that the nominees are unable to agree upon a chairperson, they shall attempt to agree on a chairperson from the following list:
- Susan Ashley

Anonymous or hearsay material cannot form any part of a notice of an expression of dissatisfaction. This notice shall be in writing and shall be sent to the Employee by his/her Responsible Manager and shall include particulars, which led to such dissatisfaction and, if appropriate, may suggest measures to remedy the problem indicated. Whenever the Employer is of the opinion that the nature of the problem, if not remedied, is one that may lead to dismissal or other disciplinary action, the Employer shall include such warning in the notice.
- 13.03 When disciplinary action is to be taken against an Employee, he/she will be notified in writing of the cause and of the action taken, or to be taken, with a copy forwarded to the Union.

- (C) However if an incumbent leaves the employ of the University, the Union shall be given the opportunity to provide input on whether the position formerly occupied by the incumbent should be filled and on what terms. The University shall take the Union's input into consideration before making a final decision. The Union will be provided with such notification within sixty (60) days of the position becoming vacant. Upon the Union's request, the Employer shall meet with up to two (2) Union representatives to discuss the impact of the vacancy including:
 - (i) Potential impact on the Department/Division;
 - (ii) Any reduction of hours to the existing position;
 - (iii) Assignment of any remaining duties should the position not be filled.

Should the parties agree, further meetings may be held to ensure any necessary clarification. The Employer shall take the Union's input into consideration before making any final decision. Within thirty (30) days following the requested meeting, the Employer will advise the Union of its decision.

Where a temporary vacancy exists, or Temporary staff are not fulfilling the full scope of the position, the Employee, Responsible Manager and Immediate Supervisor (where there is one) shall reprioritize the duties of the remaining Employee(s) concerned. If the decision is made not to fill the vacancy, or the vacancy is deferred to a later date, the Responsible Manager and Immediate Supervisor (where there is one) shall redistribute and prioritize the required duties with the remaining Employee(s) affected. Should the duties substantially increase the responsibilities of the Employee, the Employee may request a re-evaluation according to Article 23.

- 17.03 Upon the expiration of the normal one-week posting period referred to in Article 17.02, the Employer may advertise externally for potential candidates for the position. Advertising shall include the NSCAD University Web Site, and may include publications, which are pertinent to the area involved.

When possible, this process shall take place in consultation with faculty, administrators and senior Employees in those areas, which in the Employer's judgment, are directly affected by the vacancy.

17.05 During the period of interviewing and selection, and before the Employer makes a final decision with respect to applications for a vacant position, the Director of Human Resources shall arrange for short-listed candidates to meet with the Vice-President, Academic and Research and/or the Responsible Manager and the Immediate Supervisor of the area concerned so that they may be introduced to the work location and specific job responsibilities. The Vice-President, Academic and Research and/or the Responsible Manager will consult with the Immediate Supervisor of the area concerned at the conclusion of the meeting.

In cases when a position becomes vacant in a situation in which the Immediate Supervisor does not work exclusively in the immediate work location of the vacant position, before the Employer makes a final decision with respect to an application, the Responsible Manager shall provide an opportunity for the Employees and faculty in those areas which, in his/her judgment, are directly affected by the vacancy to meet the short-listed candidates and to express their views concerning them.

17.06 (A) The Employer shall make appointments from within the ranks of its existing Employees on the basis of past satisfactory job performance when such Employees apply for a posted position, provided such Employees have the necessary skills, ability and knowledge as set out by the Employer in the notice of the position, and determined through the hiring process. If two or more existing Employees are found to be satisfactory candidates according to the foregoing criteria, seniority shall be the deciding factor.

(B) The Employer may consider the appointment of an Employee who does not meet all of the requirements of a posted vacant position where the Employer determines that an internal applicant can meet the requirements as posted in the notice of the position in a period of time on the job that would not adversely affect the function or service operations in the affected unit, and with the agreement of the Responsible Manager.

17.07 (A) If a vacancy is filled by an existing Employee, that Employee shall not go through a probationary period, but shall have a thirty (30) day trial period during which there will be no loss of seniority, benefits or rights under this Agreement. If the Employee feels that he/she is not capable of fulfilling the responsibilities of his/her new position or if it is determined by the Employer that an Employee is not performing satisfactorily during his/her trial period, the Employee shall be returned to his/her former position at his/her former rate of pay and without loss of seniority. It is understood that any other Employee hired, promoted or transferred because of any rearrangement of positions within the Bargaining Unit shall be returned to his/her former position (if any) at his/her former rate of pay and without loss of seniority.

 - (ii) An Employee whose salary and step placement is higher than the floor of the new position shall move to the next step in the new position which allows for an increase in salary.
- 17.08 Within ten (10) days of the date of appointment to the new or vacant position, the name of the successful applicant shall be communicated in writing via e-mail and to the University's mailboxes to the staff and faculty of the University.
- 17.09 The Employer may suspend normal job posting procedures in order to consider the re-employment of an Employee who has been laid off under Article 21.
- 17.10 The Employer shall hire replacement staff when it considers there is a deficiency in staffing levels as determined by the Employer. In identifying such deficiency, the Employer recognizes the need to regularly review staffing levels of Unit II Employees in consultation with the Immediate Supervisors and/or Responsible Managers of Unit II Employees; to consider reports of any Joint Staffing Requirements Committee; and to consider case-by-case requests for changes in existing levels of staffing.
- 17.11 As of the date of signing of this Agreement, a copy of all future Unit II vacancies and Employee contracts shall be sent to the Vice-President of Unit II and the Union by electronic mail, normally within two (2) weeks of the hire.

Each Employee shall be entitled to one fifteen (15) minute break in each half shift.

The Employer will make every reasonable effort to adapt an Employee's work schedule to accommodate an Employee who is granted a teaching assignment in Extended Studies, an Individual Course Appointment or a Regular Part-Time Faculty appointment.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee and his/her Immediate Supervisor may mutually agree to create a work schedule with longer days, providing

- (A) that operational requirements are met;
- (B) the modified work schedule has the approval of the Responsible Manager;-and
- (C) the total hours per week do not exceed thirty-five (35).

20.02 All Employees shall work hours consistent with their established schedules. Normally Employees' scheduled work hours shall remain the same for the duration of each semester. The Employer may change an Employee's established work schedule when operational requirements necessitate it, if one (1) month's notice is given to the Employee affected. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Employee's regularly scheduled hours of work may be changed with less than one (1) month's notice when there is mutual agreement of the Employer and the Employee concerned.

20.03 Overtime means all work outside of the Employee's regularly scheduled work hours that is authorized in advance by the Responsible Manager and which is:

Overtime will be requested and approved by the Responsible Manager or Immediate Supervisor (where there is one).

20.05 An Employee who is required to work overtime fifteen (15) minutes beyond his/her normal daily hours of work shall be compensated at the rate of time and one half (1 ½ times) his/her normal hourly rate of pay for all such overtime worked. In computing overtime compensation, a period of fifteen (15) minutes or less shall be counted and paid as one complete quarter hour. Overtime compensation shall be based on the rate of pay in effect at the time the overtime is worked. An Employee shall be paid double (2 times) his/her normal hourly rate of pay for all overtime worked on Sunday, or his/her second scheduled day of rest. The Employer shall not require an Employee to work an unreasonable amount of overtime against his/her wishes.

- 20.06 Employees will normally receive remuneration for overtime hours worked at the applicable rate. Taking into account the operational requirements of the University, the Employer may grant compensation for overtime hours worked in equivalent time off at the applicable rate. If time off is requested and granted, it shall be taken at a time mutually agreed upon between the Employee and the Employer. If a mutually agreed time cannot be determined within ten (10) days of the overtime worked, pay will be given. If pay is requested it shall be given within thirty (30) days of the date overtime was worked.
- 20.07 "Call-back" means all work hours that are discontinuous and apart from the Employee's scheduled work hours, are authorized by a Responsible Manager, are not scheduled in advance, and require the Employee to return to the work premises. An Employee who is "called back" to work shall receive a minimum of five (5) hours pay at his/her straight time rate for the period worked or the applicable overtime rate for the hours worked, whichever is greater plus return cab fare or kilometres at the current University rate. In exceptional personal circumstances, an Employee may refuse such call-back work.
- 20.08 An Employee may make a request for reduced workload. Such requests shall be considered by the Employer on a case-by-case basis taking into account the operational requirements of the University. If the request is approved, the parties shall enter into a written reduced workload agreement, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the Union. It is understood that such reduced workload agreements may alter the benefit entitlements of the Employee concerned.
- 20.09 There shall be no pyramiding of wages or benefits under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 21 - RECURRENT SESSIONAL TEMPORARY LAYOFFS

- 21.01 An Employee may be laid off ("a suspension in active employment expected to be of less than four (4) months duration followed by recall") for a shortage of work due to summer program cancellation in the Employee's department.
- 21.02 When it appears that a layoff is probable, the Employer will advise the Union as soon as possible of this fact and will discuss the layoff with the Union with a view to minimizing the adverse effects of the decision to layoff.
- 21.03 Unless the Employer determines in consultation with the Union that a specific Employee lacks the skills necessary to perform the remaining work, the Employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority.
- 21.04 The Employer shall not lay off an Employee without having first given two (2) months notice in writing.
- 21.05 When less notice in writing is given than provided in Article 21.04, the Employee shall continue to receive his/her pay for the number of days for which he/she was required to be in receipt of such notice.
- 21.06 Unless the Employer determines in consultation with the Union that special skills and qualifications are required for the available work, the Employees on layoff will be recalled in reverse order of layoff.
- 21.07 Notice of recall shall be given to an Employee personally or by registered mail or telegram to his/her address on file with the Employer. It shall be a condition of possible future recall from layoff that all Employees keep the Employer informed of their current mailing address and telephone number. An Employee entitled to recall must return to the service of the Employer within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice of recall and failure to report within that time will result in loss of recall and seniority rights and his/her employment shall terminate.

ARTICLE 22 - TERMINATION DUE TO PROGRAM CHANGES OR FINANCIAL EXIGENCY

- 22.01 It is recognized that Employees may be terminated due to a permanent redundancy in their positions caused by program changes or financial exigency at the University. The University reserves the right to determine which positions within the University will be terminated due to permanent redundancy.
- 22.02 For the purpose of this Article:
- (A) “program change” means a significant and permanent change in an academic program offered by the University resulting in a permanent redundancy in the Bargaining Unit;
 - (B) “permanent redundancy” means that the functions of a position performed by a particular Employee are no longer required; and
 - (C) “financial exigency” means a financial condition which threatens the financial viability of the University, after efforts to alleviate such a financial condition by economies in the budget have been undertaken and after reasonable means of improving the University’s revenues have been pursued.
- 22.03 When it appears that a termination under this Article is probable, the Employer will advise the Union as soon as possible of this fact and will discuss the termination with the Union with a view to minimizing the adverse effects of the decision to terminate.
- 22.04 The Employer shall not terminate an Employee without having first given notice in writing as follows:
- (A) two (2) months notice if the period of employment in the bargaining unit is two (2) years or less; and
 - (B) five (5) additional days notice for every year of employment in the bargaining unit in excess of two (2) years.
- 22.05 When less notice is given than provided in Article 22.04, the Employee shall continue to receive his/her pay and benefits for the number of days for which he/she was required to be in receipt of such notice.
- 22.06 An Employee terminated pursuant to this Article shall receive severance pay (in addition to the required notice or pay in lieu thereof specified in Articles 22.04 and 22.05 above) on the following basis: employees shall be entitled to three (3) weeks pay per year of service to a maximum of thirty-three (33) weeks- (see Letter of Understanding – Article 22.06).
- 22.07 (A) An Employee who is terminated shall be entitled to exercise seniority to displace a more junior Employee, provided that, in the determination of the Employer, with reference to the Job Descriptions and in consultation with the Union, the Employee has the necessary qualifications for such position.
- (B) For a period of up to eighteen (18) months following termination pursuant to this Article, an Employee so terminated shall be kept on a re-employment list and shall be notified of all bargaining unit positions that become available during that period. The Employee, if qualified for such position, as determined by the Employer, with reference to the Job Descriptions and in consultation with the Union, shall be given the right of first refusal for such positions over other equally qualified applicants with less seniority who have or have not been terminated from the University pursuant to this Article.

- (C) Notification of all bargaining unit positions that become available shall be given to the Employee personally or by registered mail to his/her address on file with the Employer.
- (D) It shall be the responsibility of all Employees to keep the Employer informed of their current mailing address and telephone number.

22.08 An Employee who is on temporary layoff pursuant to Article 21 may become subject to this Article if during such layoff his/her position becomes permanently redundant pursuant to the provisions of this Article. In such event, only the provisions of Article 22.06 and 22.07 shall apply to such Employee.

ARTICLE 23 - JOB DESCRIPTIONS, EVALUATIONS, AND ASSIGNMENTS

- 23.01 Every new Employee covered by this Agreement will be evaluated using the Job Evaluation System which includes the Job Evaluation Manual and Job Evaluation Factor Sheet with Weights, which has been ratified by both the Employer and Union. The Job Evaluation Manual and Job Factor Sheet with Weights shall not be modified without mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union. Each job position evaluation shall produce an assessment point value, which shall be used to place each Employee on the appropriate area on the salary grid to determine the annual salary rate. Each Employee shall have a title as set forth in Appendix H - Titles and Groups for Technical and Educational Resource Personnel.
- 23.02 Agreed job descriptions summarising the present duties and responsibilities of the jobs presently covered by this Agreement are set forth in Article 42 – Job Descriptions. Existing Job Descriptions for positions and their evaluations will not be modified or eliminated without written consent of the Union and the Employer. However, changing financial circumstances for the University may require modifications to positions and position descriptions in the future. Duties relating to an Employee’s job description and group/rank may be assigned from time to time as may be necessary to the operation of NSCAD. Employees whose duties have changed shall be provided with necessary training. When substantial changes to job duties occur permanently, that Employee or his/her Immediate Supervisor may request a re-evaluation and review of his/her Job Description through the Joint Evaluation Committee. Requests shall be assessed within sixty (60) days of a written request to the Director of Human Resources.
- 23.03 Joint Evaluation Committee
- (A) A Joint Evaluation Committee shall consist of two (2) Employees from the Bargaining Unit, who currently hold the positions of Vice-President Unit II and Chair of Unit II Negotiating Team, and two (2) University employees selected by the Employer. The Joint Evaluation Committee shall use the Job Evaluation Manual and Job Evaluation Factor Sheet with Weights in assessing all job positions.
 - (B) The Joint Evaluation Committee shall choose one of the Employer representatives to act as a chairperson. The Chairperson shall have a vote.
 - (C) Decisions will be made by majority vote. Where the Joint Evaluation Committee is unable to render a majority decision, the matter will be referred to a mutually agreed third party whose decision shall be final. The third party shall be appointed within sixty (60) days of the date that the Joint Evaluation Committee is unable to render a majority decision.
 - (D) The Employer and the Union shall each pay one-half (1/2) the expenses of the third party.
- 23.04 Evaluations for New Positions

When a new position is to be established, the Employer shall submit the new full job description (which includes position summary, title, responsibilities and duties, qualifications and requirements, supervisory responsibilities, reporting line and contacts) to the Joint Evaluation Committee for assessment of points and pay rate. The Joint Evaluation Committee shall meet within twenty (20) calendar days of receiving the new full job description to determine the assessment points total.

When time constraints prevent the Joint Evaluation Committee from establishing a rating for the position, the Employer shall determine a provisional rating for the position. The Joint Evaluation Committee will meet within sixty (60) days after posting the position to review the provisional rating. Should the review result in the position moving to a higher evaluation, the salary adjustment shall be retroactive to the date of hire in the new position. Should the review result in the position moving to a lower evaluation, Article 23.06 shall apply.

23.05 Assignment of Point Values to New Hires

All positions shall have assessment points evaluated independently of the incumbent. All new hires shall be paid at the entry-level rate for his/her position.

- (iv) the reason(s) why the present evaluation is considered to be incorrect.

The Director of Human Resources shall convene a meeting of the Joint Evaluation Committee. The Joint Evaluation Committee shall schedule an interview with the Employee and may interview his/her Immediate Supervisor. The Joint Evaluation Committee shall then meet and make a determination regarding the request within sixty (60) days of receipt of such request.

Where, as a result of a job position evaluation, a position is given a lower assessment point total resulting in a lower rate of pay, the incumbent shall be identified as "red-circled" (that is, their current pay rate is frozen). Such identification shall continue until the position is vacated or until the maximum pay rate of the re-evaluated position, as revised from time to time, becomes greater than the "red-circled" pay rate of the Employee.

- 48.02 All policies will be placed on the NSCAD web site with a posting date and will be considered communicated in full to all Employees after a three (3) month time period has transpired from the posting date. When policy changes are posted on the NSCAD web site, all Unit II Employees shall be notified by email. Employees will not be disciplined for a violation of a policy during that three (3) month period, nor will they be retroactively disciplined.

APPENDIX C - SUPPLEMENTARY EMPLOYMENT BENEFIT PLAN

Purpose

The purpose of the plan is to supplement Employment Insurance benefits paid during periods of Pregnancy and Parental leave to Employees of the Faculty Union of the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design (FUNSCAD), Unit II, certified by the Nova Scotia Labour Relations Board.

Term of Agreement

The term of the plan will coincide with the term of the Collective Agreement signed May 15, 2013, and all subsequent agreements which provide the pregnancy and parental leaves to be supported under a similar plan. The plan will be effective on the date of signing of the current Collective Agreement between the parties and will terminate June 30, 2018 subject to extensions as may be provided under successor collective agreements.

Administration

The College will administer the plan and, subject to the provisions of the Collective Agreement and the provisions contained herein, will be the only authority for determining eligibility for benefits under the plan.

Plan Funding

The College's contribution to the plan will be paid from operating funds. A separate accounting will be maintained on all payments. Since no trust fund will be established, the Employees will have no vested interest in such a fund.

Eligibility

Any Employee, as defined in the Collective Agreement, having been employed with the College for a minimum of six (6) months, who is granted pregnancy leave consistent with Article 28.05 (E) of this Collective Agreement will be eligible for benefits under the plan, or

Any Employee, as defined in the Collective Agreement, having been employed with the College for a minimum of one (1) year, who is granted Parental Leave consistent with Article 28.08 of this Collective Agreement will be eligible for benefits under the plan, provided the Employee has:

- (A) applied for the Employment Insurance benefits;
- (B) complied with the reporting requirements of Human Resources Development Canada and the College; and
- (C) qualified under the Employment Insurance Act for Employment Insurance benefits as determined by Human Resources Development Canada and supplementary benefits as outlined herein.

The Employee will be required to supply the Employer with proof that she/he qualifies for Employment Insurance benefits and is in receipt of such benefits.

An Employee disentitled or disqualified from receiving benefits is not eligible for Supplementary Employment Benefits under this plan.

Benefit

The benefit payable by the College under the plan is a bimonthly amount, which combined with the Employment Insurance benefit and any other earnings will equal 95% of the Employee's normal pay over the period of pregnancy leave or parental leave. Benefits will be paid up to either a maximum of seventeen (17) consecutive weeks for Pregnancy Leave or twelve (12) weeks for Parental Leave. All amounts paid under the plan will be subject to normal income tax deductions.

Benefit Non-Entitlement

- (A) Total benefits (including the payment by the Employer) are not payable for any period in which the Employee is disqualified or disentitled from receipt of benefits under the Employment Insurance Act as determined by Human Resources Development Canada.
- (B) Benefits are not payable if:
 - (i) the Employee has been dismissed or suspended without pay as per Article 13.01 of the Collective Agreement;
 - (ii) the Employee has terminated her/his employment through resignation;
 - (iii) an application is made during a period when the Employee is currently on strike, participating in picketing or concerted work interruption;
 - (iv) the Employee is on an approved leave of absence without pay;
 - (v) the Employee is receiving Insurance benefits under the College's Long Term Disability plan.

Application for Benefits

- (A) An Employee may make application to the College for pregnancy leave commencing at any time from a day sixteen (16) weeks immediately preceding the specified date of delivery. Application should also be made at the same time to Human Resources Development Canada so that, if the Employee qualifies for benefits, they may commence at the end of the two (2) week waiting period.
- (B) An Employee wishing to apply for parental leave should provide the College with as much information as possible regarding the probable dates of the leave. A claimant for benefits under this plan must sign an undertaking with the College on a prescribed form (see end of this Appendix) providing that:
 - (i) she/he will return to work on the working day immediately following the expiry date of the pregnancy or parental leave, or any authorized extension thereof; and
 - (ii) she/he will remain in the employ of the College for at least seventeen (17) weeks following her/his return to work; and

- (iii) should she/he fail to return to work as provided under (a) above, the College, at its option, may require her/him to repay the full amount of the Supplementary Employment Insurance Benefits received during the entire period of the pregnancy leave or parental leave; and
- (iv) should she/he leave the College's employ before the seventeen (17) weeks have elapsed as provided under (b) above, the College, at its option, may require her/him to repay a proportion of such benefits equal to that proportion of the seventeen (17) week period she/he has not worked.

Benefit Adjustment

If the College determines that any benefit paid under the plan should not have been paid or should have been paid in a lesser amount, the amount of overpayment will be recovered from any subsequent benefit payable under the plan, or by making a deduction from any future moneys payable by the College to the Employee.

Other Benefits

The Employee's portion of the applicable premiums and pension contributions would be deducted from the Supplementary Employment Benefit payments made by the College up to a maximum of seventeen (17) weeks.

Modifications

The College will inform Human Resources Development Canada of any changes in the plan within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the change.

Interpretation/Grievances

No question involving the interpretation or application of Human Resources Development Canada portion of the benefit will be subject to the formal grievance procedure provided for in the Collective Agreement between the College and FUNSCAD, Unit II, acting as bargaining agent for the Employees covered by the plan.
